

Arizona Sister

Butterfly

This large butterfly is very colorful. The top of its wings are dark brown or black with creamy white bands and orange patches near the tips.

The underside of its wings are a mix of brown, blue, orange, and white. Look for it near water in canyons and oak woods.